

Rabbit class – RE Knowledge Organiser ‘What kind of world did Jesus want?’

Tier 3 Vocabulary

Christianity	the religion based on the life and teachings of Jesus Christ
Christian	A follower of Christianity
Disciple	Someone who follows the teachings of a leader or a set of ideas.
Possession	Something that you own
Follower	To be guided by someone or something
Gospel	Good news
biography	A book that tells someone’s life story
leprosy	A contagious disease that affects the skin
leper	A person suffering from leprosy
Community	A group of people who live in the same area or who have something in common with each other
World	the planet Earth
Society	All the people who live in the same country or area and share the same laws and customs
Change	To become different or to make something different
Charity	An organisation which raises money for those in need
Intention	The thing that you mean to do
Purpose	A reason or an intention

Pictures and Images

Skills and understanding

- To outline the religious ideas surrounding the calling of the first disciples
- To link viewpoints about how Jesus acted, compared to how society acted
- To express own ideas about key areas of the world pupils would like to change
- To identify certain stories in the Gospels
- To respond thoughtfully to questions from a member of clergy

Key Facts

- There are 4 Gospels; Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.
- Some of the stories are written multiple Gospels, some include different details to build a bigger picture.
- Jesus called his disciples away from their normal jobs to follow him.
- Jesus’ disciples had to make a decision, a life choice, to give up everything and follow him.
- Jesus treated everyone equally, regardless of how they were viewed by society.
- Jesus wanted a world where everyone was loved, regardless of anything else.